CNB Bank & Trust Announces New Loan Officer

Brighton, IL January 14, 2020 . . . CNB Bank & Trust, N.A. is pleased to announce the addition of Gina Cox as Retail Lending Officer in the CNB Brighton and Shipman, IL branches. As of December 30, 2019, Gina will be the primary lending officer, handling all varieties of loans, as well as support loan development and management efforts. She is a seasoned professional who brings 12+ years of experience in establishing new client relationships.

In her new position, Gina will work closely with clients and fellow loan officers within CNB to develop relationships and recommend loans based on the specific needs of each customer. Gina's experience and dedication to clients make her the perfect complement to CNB's progressive lending focus.

Gina resides in Woodburn and is active in her children's sports and school activities. She frequently volunteers for numerous different events and supports the community with donations as well as with her time. Prior to being promoted to Retail Lending Officer, she started her banking career at CNB in 2015 as a Mortgage Loan Closer.
