CNB Announces Promotion of Matt Cors to Market President of Jacksonville Branch

Carlinville, IL (July 01, 2021)– CNB Bank & Trust, N.A. announced the promotion of Matt Cors to Market President of its Jacksonville branch, effective with the retirement of Chris Royal on July 23, 2021.

Matt started his banking career as a part-time teller at Jacksonville Savings Bank while enrolled at Illinois College. After graduating from IC, Matt began full-time employment with JSB holding various positions most notably Vice President of Operations and then Vice President of Retail Banking prior to the merger with CNB Bank & Trust, N.A. in 2019. Since joining the CNB team, Matt has most recently led CNB's Mortgage Department serving as Vice President and Senior Residential Mortgage Loan Operations Officer.

As Market President for the Jacksonville and Chapin markets, Matt will oversee budget-planning, loan and deposit growth, and maximization of revenue. Matt has done an excellent job maintaining a community bank focus that fits well within CNB's mission of earning repeat business and helping customers achieve financial success. An active member of the community, Matt lives in Jacksonville, IL, with his wife and 2 girls (6, 2) who keep him busy.
